MORNING SERMON OUTLINE

"Passing On The Faith"

2 Timothy 1: 1-7

5/8/16

Introduction – We are thankful and grateful for our mothers all year long but especially on Mother's Day. Being a mom is not easy but more so in today's culture! In his second letter to Timothy Paul starts off by recognizing the spiritual influence of his mother and grandmother in his life. The principles he commended them for are still principles that can apply today.

1) A PLANTED FAITH (V. 5b, Gal. 6: 7, 3: 14-15)

- a) "...which first lived in your grandmother Lois and your mother Eunice..."
- b) They were careful to deliberately sow proper seeds into Timothy's life.
- c) No one lets a garden determine its own path regarding its growth and productivity.
- d) To harvest children of faith parents must sow seeds of faith.

2) A TAUGHT FAITH (V. 5c, 3: 15, Rom. 10: 17, Matt. 24: 4)

- a) "I am persuaded now lives in you also".
- b) There are many resources to promote faith but none better than the Bible.
- c) How well will our children stand up to the tests of life and faith when grown?
- d) Paul commends the women in Timothy's life for his own level of faith.

3) A PRACTICED FAITH (V. 5a, Prov. 22: 6)

- a) "I have been reminded of your sincere faith..."
- b) The word translated "sincere" is the Greek "anupokritos" - without hypocrisy.
- c) Children are taught more influentially with our actions than with our words.
- d) "Train up a child in the way they should go and walk in it yourself"

Conclusion - In a society of tolerance, flexibility and ungodliness we must be especially vigilant to plant, teach and practice the things of faith that will pass on our faith to the next generation. How we pass on the faith can determine whether or not our children "pass" on the faith. May God inspire all parents to be better parents when it comes to matters of faith.
