MORNING SERMON NOTES

1 Samuel 17: 4-7, 16, 26, 43-47

4/10/16

Woodlawn Pt. 3: "Making A Difference"

Introduction – The movie "Woodlawn" tells the story of a high school football team united by Jesus Christ to overcome their differences and make a difference in their community. The story of David and Goliath is one in which overwhelming odds are overcome, momentum shifts and victory is achieved. To make a difference for the Lord we must realize that:

- 1) NO ENEMY IS TOO STRONG (Vs. 4-7)
 - a) "A champion named Goliath from Gath came out of the Philistine camp"
 - b) The size of this giant was intimidating, unnerving, imposing and terrifying.
 - c) While everyone else was fearful David was faithful. His God was bigger!
 - d) People who make a difference don't let their fears overpower them.
- 2) NO WEAPON IS TOO WEAK (Vs. 16, 26, 2 Thess. 3: 3)
 - a) "Who is this uncircumcised Philistine who defies the armies of the living God?"
 - b) God specializes in taking weaker instruments of faith to overcome the strong.
 - c) David knew the outcome wasn't based on equipment but God's empowering!
 - d) People who make a difference advance towards their fears in confidence.
- 3) NO BATTLE IS TOO BIG (Vs. 43-47, 2 Cor. 12: 9)
 - a) "The battle is the Lord's and He will give all of you into our hands"
 - b) God will use whoever is willing and available to make a difference.
 - c) No earthly power can stand up to or against God's power and presence!
 - d) People who make a difference choose not to blend in with the indifference.

Conclusion - David showed us what happens when faith enters the equation. He won the battle but God received the glory. God can use anyone, anywhere, at any time to make a difference. Become a committed follower who trusts in a powerful God. What is God asking you to do for Him that is bigger than you think you are? The power available to David is available to us!
