MORNING SERMON NOTES

Matthew 3:13-17

4/17/16

Woodlawn Pt. 4 "Identity in Baptism"

Introduction – The movie "Woodlawn" tells the story of a high school football team united by Jesus Christ. In doing so, they took on a new identity. God used their new identity to speak to the coach of their team who took on that new identity himself through his willingness to believe in Jesus and then follow Him in baptism. How do we identify with Christ in baptism?

1) IT IS A DELIBERATE AND WILLFUL ACTION FOR GOD (V. 13)

- a) "Jesus came from Galilee to the Jordan to be baptized by John"
- b) The distance involved was about 40 miles. Jesus walked the entire way.
- c) Jesus submission to baptism confirmed John's message of repentance.
- d) To follow Jesus and be baptized is a decision only we can make for ourselves.

2) IT IS A CONSECRATION OF SELF TO GOD (Vs. 14-15, Lev. 8:6, 10, 23, Rom. 6:3)

- a) "It is proper for us to do this to fulfill all righteousness"
- b) As with other priests, baptism identified Jesus as a priest set apart unto God.
- c) Deuteronomy 31:14 and John 1:28 indicate similarity in His being set apart.
- d) Baptism indicates our desire to consecrate ourselves to God for His glory.

3) IT MEETS THE APPROVAL OF GOD (Vs. 16-17, Josh. 3:16, Eph. 1:13-14)

- a) "At that moment heaven was opened..."
- b) Three dramatic events occur here that set Jesus baptism apart from other baptisms.
- c) Passage is made, purity is given, and the voice of God speaks.
- d) Following Jesus in baptism acknowledges our hope and trust in His approval.

Conclusion - Baptism does not do anything to save our soul. Only the blood of Jesus can do that. However, baptism matters and it is an ordinance no Christian person should neglect. It is the first step of obedience in following Jesus after we have repented of our sins and trusted Him as our Savior. We identify ourselves with Christ through baptism.

April 29, 2016

6pm-12:30am

Imagine living in a place where sharing your faith in Christ and belief in the teachings of the Bible was not only discouraged, but actually dangerous. How committed would you be to God's Word and ways in a place like this—where your beliefs could threaten your home, your family, even your life?

Secret Church is a version of "house church" where we meet periodically for an intense time of Bible study—lasting 6+ hours—including a time of prayer for Christians across the globe who are facing persecution and for those who still have not heard the gospel. This is not for the uncommitted or faint at heart. But if you desire to know God more deeply through His Word and know His church more fully around the world, then please join us for Secret Church.

Evening Service

“The Role of Women In Church” (Pt. 2)

1 Timothy 2: 11-12

4/17/16

Introduction – Last week we discussed both tasteful and prohibitive appearances of how a woman should dress in church. This is not an unfair treatment of women as much as it is an indictment on men regarding their tempted fleshly nature. Tonight we look at three instructions concerning a woman's actions in the church. How is she respond to the leadership that is appointed above her?

1) RESPECTFUL ACTION (V. 11a, 1 Corinthians 11: 5, Galatians 3: 28)

- a) "A woman should learn in quietness..."
- b) Services in Timothy's day consisted various speakers including women.
- c) Some women were taking advantage of their freedom from separation and segregation.
- d) Speaking should be done with calmness, discretion and appropriateness.

2) SUBMISSIVE ACTION (V. 11b)

- a) "...and full submission..."
- b) Submission (Greek hupotage) means to "rank under" but doesn't project a lesser quality.
- c) It has more to do with God's umbrella of authority. More on this next week.
- d) The caution here is against disrespect, disruptive and abusive treatment of leadership.

3) TEACHING ACTION (V. 12, Titus 2: 4, Acts 18: 24-26, 2 Timothy 1: 5)

- a) "I do not permit a woman to teach or to have authority over a man".
- b) The command here is not two separate commands but one whole command.
- c) In Timothy's day the position of teacher coincided with the office of pastor.
- d) The problem wasn't teaching in itself but the struggle for power and authority.

Conclusion - God is not a God of disorder but of peace (1 Cor. 14: 33). Interruption and domination in worship services whether through teaching or speaking in tongues or by man or woman is expressly prohibited. We are grateful for women who serve the Lord in leadership areas as many do so because men are not willing to step up to assume their rightful roles.
